The candidate who secures either of the first two ranks shall apply for the Scholarship to the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore, through the Head of the Institution in the prescribed form within one month from the date of reopening of the Art Institution after the summer vacation. Immediately after the announcement of the result every year, the Additional Director of Public Instruction and Chairman, Mysore Secondary Education Examination Board, will send the list of candidates who have secured the first two ranks in two Kala Prathama Kala Madhyama and Kala Proudha Examination to the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore, for award of Scholarships.

5. Conditions of Award.

Scholarships shall be awarded subject to good conduct, regular attendance and satisfactory progress. If any scholarship holder is found guilty of misconduct or of irregular attendance without satisfactory reasons or has failed to make satisfactory progress in studies, the Head of the Institution may recommend to the Assistant Director of Public Instruction (Drawing) for cancellation of the Scholarship or to withhold further payment of it as he thinks fit. The Assistant Director of Public Instruction (Drawing) shall issue orders within a month and the orders shall be carried out by the Head of the Institution. The scholar shall also execute a bond in the Form-I prescribed. If the scholar is a minor the Bond shall be executed by the parent or guardian of the scholar.

6. Period of Absence permissible in a Month.

(a) Scholarship holders absenting themselves from the school for a period not exceeding 3 days in a month without permission of the Head of the Institution may be paid full rate of Scholarships, such absence being allowed also in connection with Dasara or Christmas Holidays. But for absence without permission exceeding 3 days in a month or 15 days in a year the holder shall lose his scholarship for the actual number of days of such absence. The Heads of such Institution shall maintain a record of such cases of reductions and withholding of scholarships and send reports to the Assistant Director of Public Instruction (Drawing) every month.

(b) The Scholarship holders who absent themselves from the Class owing to ill health may on production of Medical Certificate from the registered Medical Practitioner be paid scholarship due to them. The total period of absence in such case should not exceed 30 days either continuously or in broken periods during a school year.

(c) The Heads of Institutions are empowered to use their discretion in regard to payment of Scholarships to the students who are marked absent for late coming for good reasons to be furnished by the students.

(d) The Scholarship holders shall be liable to refund the scholarship amount received by them if during the course of the year they discontinue their studies without furnishing reasons to the satisfaction of the Head of the Institution concerned.

(e) No student shall hold two kinds of scholarships at a time. He shall be given the option to retain the scholarship beneficial to him. The option once exercised shall under no circumstances be changed.

7. Drawing and disbursing of scholarships.

(a) Immediately after the awards are decided by the Director of Public Instruction the Secretary of the Board for Art and Craft Education shall send the awards lists to the Institutions concerned.

(b) The Heads of Institutions shall prepare the bills of Scholarships immediately after the award lists are received and submit them to the Director of Public Instruction for countersignature.

(c) Heads of Institutions should before claiming the scholarship satisfy themselves about the regular attendance and satisfactory progress and good conduct of the scholars A certificate regarding this should always be furnished in the bills concerned.

(d) Scholarship amount should be drawn soon after the awards are made and intimated by the Director of Public Instruction and thereafter regularly every month. The disbursement should be made by the Head of Institution every month in the presence of a member of the staff and not by a clerk. Disbursement of scholarship should be made to the students after obtaining the acknowledgement in the Aquittance Roll.

(e) Scholarship due should not be allowed to remain undrawn and undisbursed beyond 2 months from the date from which they become payable.

(f) Arrears of Scholarships should be claimed by the students themselves within two months after they become due. Awards of scholarships not acted upon within three months of their sanction should be considered to have lapsed and should not be drawn after that period without specific sanction of the Director of Public Instruction.

(g) To ensure a proper check in the matter of the disbursement of scholarships inspecting officers should satisfy themselves by suitable enquiries and inspection of records that scholarships awarded have been actually drawn and disbursed and certify to that effect in the respective report.

(b) Rules for the Award of Lumpsum Scholarships for Art Students (Drawing and Painting.)

1. These rules shall be called Lump sum Scholarship Rules in Art Studies.

2. These rules shall come into force from the academic year 1969–70.

3. The scholarship shall be awarded to a student who secures the first rank in the Diploma in Drawing and Painting (Kala Nipuna) Examination as a student of one of the Government or recognised Art Institutions in the State and prosecutes further studies on a research basis.

4. A sum of Rs. 1,000 shall be awarded as scholarship and paid in 2 instalments as under :—

I Instalment : Rs. 400 in the first month.

II Instalment : Rs. 600 after handing over one painting of 2" x 3" or more to the Department.

5. The candidate who secures the first rank in the Diploma (Kala Nipuna) Examination and prosecutes further studies in the subject shall apply for the scholarship to Director of Public Instruction.

6. The Scholarship shall be awarded and paid by the Director of Public Instruction as at rule 4.

7. The awardee immediately after the announcement of the award shall execute a bond that he would repay the amount (to the extent received by him) in case of discontinuance of studies by him for reasons other than continuous ill-health supported by a Medical Certificate. If such ill-health continues by the two months, the award shall be discontinued.

8. The candidate receiving lumpsum scholarship will be attached to a certified artist of the institution recognised for the purpose.

9. Rules prescribed for Drawing and Painting Examinations will apply for Diploma in Drawing and Painting (Kala Nipuna) and also for Modelling (Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced and Diplomas) and Teaching Examinations (Drawing Master and Art Master).

10. The heads of the Institutions from which the candidates pass certify regarding the conduct and progress of the applicant.

These scholarships are not to be awarded outside the State for studying in the J. J. School of Arts, Bombay, or at other places.
